In light of the spread of COVID-19 in North Carolina, the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the National Council for Behavioral Health are providing guidance to Behavioral Health Facilities for screening and monitoring individuals that are residing and being served in these facilities to help improve infection control practices and to prevent the spread of the virus. In addition to the overarching regulations and guidance, this link includes the following information (screening questions to use) about some specific areas related to COVID-19.
