Trillium Partners with Morehead City Marlins on Inclusive Baseball Game

Sharing information and sensory items to make inclusivity a home run

MOREHEAD CITY, NC: Trillium Health Resources is joining the Morehead City Marlins for a night of inclusive fun on Saturday, August 5. We will be handing out earplugs, sunglasses, fidget spinners and more for guests to use. These sensory items can make public activities more enjoyable.

For some individuals with autism spectrum disorder or other diagnoses, the bright lights and loud noises at a baseball game can be distracting or uncomfortable. Big crowds can also be overstimulating. By offering earplugs to dampen the sound, sunglasses to minimize the bright lighting, and fidget spinners to provide a focus, we can welcome everyone to the ballpark.

Gates open at 6 p.m., with the first pitch at 7 p.m. Get your tickets today at mhcmarlins.com/tickets-2/tickets/.

Trillium staff will also be on hand to answer questions and share information about resources available. Trillium has invited members with Carobell, Easterseals UCP, Monarch, and the Autism Society of North Carolina to enjoy this inclusive event.
