

Attention All Providers

Nash County Realignment Update:

We have been notified that Eastpointe has filed a legal action against DHHS, and has also included Trillium as part of the suit. We have not had an opportunity to review the pleadings in full, so we are unclear as to the complaint against Trillium.

At this time, we are still actively preparing for a launch date of July 1 for the Nash County realignment. We will not take any steps that will cause an interruption to services or that will cause further burdens to the members of Nash County.

Given the legal nature of this action, Trillium will not comment on specifics of the case.

Thank you for your focus and dedication during this process. The primary focus of Trillium will continue to be the people we serve, and ensuring the delivery of the right services at the right time, and we will continue to do so for the residents of all of our counties, including Nash County.
