Here are some common ways: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Primary Care Physicians: Many individuals have a primary care provider who they consult for general health issues, routine check-ups, and referrals to specialists.</li> <li>Health Insurance: Most people access care through health insurance plans, which cover a range of medical services. They may obtain insurance through their employer, government programs, or purchase it privately.</li> <li>Urgent Care Centers: For non-emergency situations that require immediate attention, people often visit urgent care facilities. These centers provide treatment for minor injuries and illnesses without the long wait times</li> </ol>	We provide substance use, behavioral health, reentry support, life skills support, diversion support, recidivism reduction, mentoring program, forensic evaluations.
